

Dorothy Colwell "Dottie"

January 27, 2020

Chili: Saturday, January 25, 2020 at the age of 87, Dorothy went home to her Lord, with her loving family by her side. Proceeded in death by her husband, Charles "Ed" Colwell Jr., and her brother William Davis. Survived by her brothers, Richard (Irma) Davis and Larry (Mickey) Warne; daughters, Cindy Egan and Dr. Ellen Colwell; son Dan (Beth) Colwell; grandsons, Barry (Stephanie) Egan, Matthew Colwell and Billy Egan; granddaughter Rachel Colwell; great-granddaughter Taylor Bailey and great-grandson Jax Egan; and by many nieces and nephews.

Dorothy was born in Seneca Falls, NY, in 1932 and graduated from Romulus High School. She graduated from Auburn School of Nursing in 1952. She worked as a nurse for many years. She was a lifelong member of the United Methodist Church of North Chili. In retirement she enjoyed traveling and spending time with her family. She also enjoyed playing bridge with her many friends. She enjoyed her life at the Legacy at Parklands, participating in the many activities and meeting so many wonderful people.

Due to the Covid-19 situation, Dottie's Memorial Service that was scheduled for Sat. March 21st at the United Methodist Church in North Chili has been postponed until a future announcement is made.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the United Methodist Church of North Chili or the Alzheimer's Association.

Comments

“ Dear Cindy, Ellen, Dan, Beth, and grandchildren,
Your Mom had a heart of gold. She was always kind. Always loving. Always trying to assist others, even up to her last breath. We have had the privilege of knowing your Mom for 4 decades through church and cards. She will remain always in our hearts.

Our deepest sympathy to you all!
