

Adam D. Glogowski

September 26, 2024

Thursday, September 26, 2024 at age 39. Predeceased by his grandparents, Stephen and Mary Paris. Survived by his children, Aidan and Isabella Glogowski and their mother, Stephanie Vindigni; step-daughter, Nevaeh Kretchmer; parents, David and Gail; brother, Matthew; and many loving aunts, uncles, cousins and puppy, Lily.

Adam will always be remembered for the love he had inside of him, and the love he gave to those around him. From his children, to his pets to his plants, Adam was the best at showing his love and care through his actions. He went through the world with a childlike wonder, wide eyed and curious, eager to see and do everything. There are so many things that Adam was good at; he had a green thumb that at times seemed magical, he could whip up a gourmet masterpiece in the kitchen and rebuild a carbaroteur in the garage the next day. Anything he set his mind to, he would make sure that he devoted enough time, energy and attention to it and become the best at it. He loved singing and dancing, he loved laughing, he was a gentle and tender caretaker of all around him, and he provided a safe place for those he cared for to land and live. He loved with everything he had, and he was loved back immensely in return. Although he is no longer here, we are all rich in the memories and happiness we got to experience with him. The best parts of him, the magical and wonderful ones, live on in his children, Isabella and Aidan.

“ This will never be goodbye to our sweet, loving son. Our hearts are broken and will never be whole again. We love you now and forever. You brought so much joy to our lives. Wait for us in Heaven when we can all be together again. You are our angel now although far too soon. I hope you can feel our hugs and kisses that we are sending you. We are taking good care of Lily. ❤️❤️❤️

“ On behalf of the Rochester Arc + Flame Center, we are devastated to hear this news. Adam was a ball of energy and we all enjoyed his loving and kind spirit. Our Flameshop was always a little brighter when he would work in there. Our hearts are broken for his children, his dog Lilly (who enjoyed spending time in the flameshop with Adam), his family and his friends. Deepest sympathies to everyone who knew Adam. Our flameshop will forever be a little emptier and a little dimmer without him here. We are so very sorry for the loss of this beautiful life.
