Alexander F. Bogojoski

Jackson, Georgia: Sunday, August 13, 2023 at age 24. Survived by his father, Sasha; mother, Christine (Bob) Rotolo; sister, Brooke (Mike) Laing; grandmothers, Sofka Bogojoska and Sally Ann; aunt, Mirjana Bogojoska; and many other loving relatives and friends.

Alex was an incredible young man with a huge heart. He loved his family more than anything and he always wanted everyone around him to be happy. One thing about Alex is he loved being silly and absolutely loved being able to make anyone around him laugh or have fun. From the time Alex was little, he developed such a strong love for motorcycles that they became a true passion of his. He loved riding and it made him happier than ever. Alex was a courageous man and was very determined to get everything he wanted out of life. Alex will always be in our hearts because he meant the world to his family. He will always be missed and never forgotten.

Family and friends may call at the Leo M. Bean and Sons Funeral Home Friday, September 1st from 12-2pm. Private interment.
