Amanda Rae Caufield

Gates: Suddenly on Monday, March 31, 2025 at age 28. Predeceased by her grandparents, James Kemp and Thomas and Marcella Caufield. Survived by her mother, Catie (Tim) Moyer; father, Jim Caufield; brother, Mark Caufield (Maria Martinez); grandmother, Karen Kemp; niece, Sofiya; step-brother, Eric; step-sisters, Faylin and Paige; aunts, uncles, cousins and dear friends.

Amanda Rae was a beloved daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece, aunt (“Titi”) and most loyal friend you’d ever have to many. She was born in Rochester and grew up in Gates in an awesome neighborhood with many friends. She was busy and happy as a kid, with many activities including soccer for a few years. (tough defense #7) She enjoyed family vacations, including Disney, a few trips to Virginia Beach and many years camping at our family camp in the southern tier that she called her “happy place”.

A true Scorpio, passionate and strong willed, but with the biggest heart. She loved her family, friends and her little niece, Sofiya, who held a special place in her heart. True to herself and never afraid to face life head on. She always lived life to the fullest, was always up for an adventure and always made the most of those adventures.

Family and friends may call at the Leo M. Bean and Sons Funeral Home Thursday, April 10th from 3-6pm. Funeral Mass Friday 10am at St. Pius Tenth Church, 3000 Chili Ave. Rochester, NY 14624.

Amanda Rae, YOU WILL BE MISSED AND ALWAYS IN OUR HEARTS

“ I have been looking for the words to say to write out what losing my childhood best friend has felt like and to help me feel a little better, I put it in a poem. I love you, Amanda❤️

*How strange that my daughter will never meet you
That to my husband, you are just a name from my past
That when I bring up your death, you are “my old neighbor”
A title that makes it seem like it was never meant to last*

*But to me, you are home
A place I long for some days
A time when I didn't know pain
Aside from that broken arm in 7th grade*

*You're a long day in the pool
My body tired from all the fun
You're the shower in our bathing suits
After a day spent in the sun*

*You're the walk to the gas station
Where we'd spend all the money we had
A time when having $20 to my name
Didn't seem too dang bad*

*You're the smell of camp
And the neighborhood party every year
You're hide and seek and playing house
You're climbing trees with no fear*

*My dad yells at us for going on the roof
And your dad wishes I would ever knock
Your mom said that you're not home right now
But you'll be back at 5 o clock*

How strange it is that I can't remember, when things took a different turn

When the commons and who can play after school, were no longer our main concern

*But I still know your home phone number by heart
And I can still feel the way our laughter overflowed and you will always be home to me
Right there in the backyards of the houses on Fisher/Mareeta Road*
