Amanda N. Grey

Chili - Monday, July 30, 2018 suddenly at age 24. Predeceased by her grandfather, Vincent Aureli; grandmother, Arlene Grey; uncle and God father, Daniel Aureli. Survived by her daughter, Lilliana Rose Grey-Kalkounis; parents, Thomas and Julie Grey; grandmother, Barbara Aureli; grandfather, William Grey; God mother, Karen Latona; special aunt, Evelyn Weins; other dear aunts, uncles, special cousins and friends. Amanda was taken too soon. Her daughter was her world and her family was her haven. She wanted to make the world a better and safer place. She was caring and had a love for all people and animals. She often spoke of her needs being world peace, love, harmony, fairness, equality and a greater emphasis on mental health. Amanda was a gifted writer and excelled in sports. Amanda believed "everything happens for a reason".

Private Service and Interment at the convenience of the family. Memorials may be made to Golisano Children's Hospital.

“ Rest In Peace Manny. We will forever remember you as a loving, thoughtful, caring and gifted person who excelled and while doing so always stopped to extend a helping hand to those you felt needed one. But your greatest gift, to all of us, is your beautiful daughter. You can rest now. I love you boo boo! Dad
