“ My sister lives with Amy's sister, and I remember meeting her at a Christmas party one year. From that brief meeting, I could see what a friendly and kind person she was, and she gave me some hair advice for my older son that I never forgot. Through the last few years, I have heard of her extremely courageous battle and how hard she fought for herself and her family. Amy's legacy will always live on through the love she had for her family, and her spirit go on adventures despite her circumstances. She was a true inspiration of living life to the fullest. I count it a true privilege to have briefly known Amy. Praying for all of you, that you carry on the adventures Amy would want you to have.

“ Dear Ray, Ariana, Sam, and Katlyn,

I facilitated your wife and mother's cancer support group and I heard about you often, always with great and abiding love. And I did know Amy. Over the past 2+ years, I heard first and foremost about her abiding joy and pride in you kids. She loved you with a great passion and would often say how amazing you are. She was so grateful to be your mom. She loved going to afterschool activities and out-of-town competitions and games.

Amy also spoke often of her deep love for you Ray and for her wonderful parents, all of whom supported her unconditionally and with great love. Whatever Amy did she did with her full heart and with energy and passion. I always felt that Amy could be fierce in her passion to live life, to do as much as she could with purpose and meaning for as long as possible. She wanted to fill her life with family and hugs and joy. I will remember Amy as an inspiration for others who were struggling with cancer, as a kind, caring person, as a woman who was filled with love for her family, a strong woman who focused on the good in life.

Amy's love can't be contained - she will always be with you. As we say in Judaism, May her memory always be for a blessing.

With love, Cathy Harris

“ My deepest sympathy to the Campbell and Brewer families.
I've known Amy since she was born, graduated high school with her mom.
She had the best parents a child could ask for.
She was a very strong willed girl.
I'm keeping her family especially the children in my prayers.

RIP Amy

“ my condolences to the family. I got to know Amy during our season nine cheer competitions. She was always very kind. Even with her struggles she still push Herself to attend the cheer team every chance she could. May she struggle no more.

Please keep and carry these precious people in their sadness and loss. Cover them with your great wings of love, give their weary hearts rest and their minds sound sleep. Lord, lift their eyes so that they may catch a glimpse of eternity, and be comforted by the promise of heaven.

“ Dear Frank, Anne and Lisa,
Our deepest sympathy to you on the loss of your beloved Amy. Amy was a wonderful daughter and such a loving sister to Lisa. We saw Amy about 1 year ago and her face just lit up with love when she spoke of her husband and children. Amy was a friend to everyone.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all and may God wrap His loving arms around you during this heartbreaking time.
An angel now in Heaven...no more suffering Amy, rest in peace.
With love,
Chuck and Linda Alongi
