An Angel lived among us,
A gift from God above.
She showered us with kindness
And shared with us her love
She cherished every moment
With the man who was her life,
Walking in hand together,
Facing life with all it's strife.
She loved her children dearly,

Each one in a different way,
Nestled close within her heart.
Though, now, she's far away.
She's gone to live with Jesus.
But, she's here with us, today,
Smiling down on every one of us,
And telling us she's ok.

Our Annie, Loving Mother, Wife, Sister and Friend...Always in our Hearts!!

“ My fondest memory of Auntie Ann was her having me telephone prank various people from her school all while laughing hysterically. I thought it was so cool of her to invite me to her sleep overs as a kid not even realizing we were only 7 years apart. She was simply my Aunt, but also doubled as a friend. I will miss her calls to catch up and seeing her smile. Rest in peace Auntie....I love you....Margie

“ Randy and Family,
I am so sorry for your loss, Ann seemed like such a wonderful person, I mainly knew her through your stories which was obvious the love you have for each other and incredible bond. God bless, you and your family are in my prayers

“ my memories of Auntie Ann were remembering her hanging out with us and like my brother said watching her dance in those genie shoes to Saturday Night Fever. She wore out that album. Or always saying i am going to shoot that away and my nana acting like she had a gun and keep yelling at her saying shoot, shoot, shoot. It is throw it away. I think she did it on purpose to get my nana started. Other memories is when she pinned me up against the car while she was driving her fathers purple lawn mower. Good times. All in all she was the most calm, loving, want to hang around with person and I will miss her. Rest in Peace.

“Annie always tried to find the good in everyone, regardless. Before she met her soulmate, Randy, she and I hung out together. She loved to dance, her laugh was contagious, and her outlook on life infectious. We come from a large family that is spread out far and wide across 50 states. Thankful for social media that we’ve been able to stay in touch with one another. I could always go to Annie’s FB pages to catch up on family photos and find a good recipe. She didn’t disappoint. Soar high, Cuzzie, you’ve earned your wings ... we can only imagine 💕 Love you, cousins, Jann, Dave, Leah, Janae and Aunt Frances xoxo

“I have many memories of my Auntie Ann, but one of my favorites was listening to record albums in my grandparents basement. Auntie Ann loved to dance and she would keep my siblings and cousins busy, while the adults were enjoying each other’s company upstairs. We’d listen to the Saturday Day Night Fever Album and Kool and the Gang’s “Celebration.” We danced and laughed so much! I know that you’re now with our Lord. I hope that you’re laughing and dancing to “Celebration.” You will be forever in our minds and in our hearts. I loves you, Auntie Ann.

“I have known Annie since 1973. We moved to Victor and she was my first friend. We had slumber parties at her house and had so much fun. We did a lot together. What a kind soul. My life was so full of unconditional kindness because of Ann. I will always love you my dear friend. Sue Fox Garrett.
