

Anthony S. Caifano "Tony"

November 16, 2025

Sunday, November 16, 2025 at age 94. Predeceased by his wife, Angela. Survived by his sons, Dr. Robert Caifano and Dean Caifano; 6 grandchildren; and 1 great-grandson.

Anthony "Tony"/"Nino" Caifano was a beloved father, grandfather and friend. He was a hard worker, always doing whatever needed to be done to make sure his family was taken care of. He loved with his whole heart and nothing gave him more pride than seeing his children and grandchildren doing well. He never backed down in the face of adversity, even when that meant running into a burning building to save four strangers. His strong character and confidence always shone through, as did his endless antics which never ceased to entertain. When he was with you it was never a dull moment. He is finally reunited with his dearly departed love, Angela, who he never stopped longing for since losing her almost four years ago.

We miss you, Nonno, and hope you can feel our love up in heaven. Rest easy and we will see you again one day. Give a big hug and kiss to Nonna for us. Private service and interment at the convenience of the family.

“ Above all else, Tony was my friend, and I loved him. I met Tony 3 and a 1/2 years ago. His lawn tractor was stuck in soft dirt in a corner in the backyard. I thought that Jesus was sending me to help tony. Little did I know that Jesus was sending me to learn lessons in humility. Being Tony's friend taught me patience. We bonded right away, and I always loved his stories. The days seem kind of void now, that tony is not there to visit. Rest now in the loving arms of Jesus.

“ I always looked forward to Tony's visits to the Bank. He was a very nice man and was quick with a smile. I liked it when he called me Dolly. He will be missed very much.

“ Dearest Tony, when we met by chance 3.5 years ago, I didn't know it would turn into such a friendship that would last. I loved spending time with you, listening to your life stories and having espresso with you in the afternoon. I'm happy you're in heaven now, free of pain but you are surely missed by us. We will never forget you, Tony. God bless you.

Lillian and I are saddened to hear of Tony's passing. We have known him for over fifty years and during that time we were always treated like family. May the sorrow of his family and friends be lessened by the many happy memories they retain of him

Dean thinking of you and your family as you mourn the loss of your father. I'm sure he lived a happy and full life filled with love and laughter.
