“ Mom,

Thank you for always being you.

Thank you for your strength, your patience, your humor, and the way you quietly took care of people—often without anyone even realizing it. Thank you for the love you gave so freely, the lessons you taught without lectures, and the way you made a house feel like home.

Most of all, thank you for choosing me to be your son. Being adopted never felt like something missing—because you made sure I always knew I was wanted, loved, and believed in, even when I tested every ounce of your patience.

*You showed up. Every time.
For your family, your friends, your community, and anyone who needed help.*

*I will carry you with me in everything I do.
I miss you more than I can put into words.
And I'm forever grateful that I got to call you Mom.*

I wish I could give you one more bear hug you always asked me for....

*Love always,
Marc*

“ Marc,
I'm so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. My mom and I had the pleasure of getting to know your mom at grief support group 18 years ago when we both lost our fathers. I will always remember your mom's kindness. I hope you are surrounded by the love of your family and friends during this difficult time. Send love to Stephanie too.

I'm thinking of you both! Love, Joy (Denny) Swierk

Rich,

Thank you for sharing this. Every word you wrote speaks to the man Mom helped shape — and the man you are.

I want you to know something clearly and without question: our bond as brothers, and as a family, has never been in doubt and never will be. Mom didn't just raise two sons — she built a family rooted in love, loyalty, and showing up for one another. You did that for her in ways that mattered deeply, especially when it counted most.

I'm grateful beyond words for the care, love, and strength you gave Mom — and for the way you were there for her, and for Amanda. She trusted you, leaned on you, and was proud of you. That's something no one can ever take away.

We carry her together. Always have. Always will.

*Love you,
Marc*
