“ I first saw my cousin Bernie was when I was about five. It was Christmas time and I was staying at Uncle George and Aunt Velda's house. In later year's, it was the shady Euchre games at Bernie and Karen's home where, one time, we played Euchre until after midnight. In the photo you can see me covering my cards. The smirk on Bernie's face? - he was sitting on a trump card. God Bless you, cousin Bernie. Judy Lusk-Benjamin
