“ Pat was a "snowbird" friend in our park in Ruskin, FL. He spent many hours outside working on his yard and enjoyed bowling on the Hide-A-Way bowling league and was a very good shuffleboard player.

Condolences to Nancy and their sons on their lose and prayers during this difficult time.

“ Pat was a wonderful neighbor. We called him "The Mayor" of our street because he watched out for anything unusual and alerted his neighbors. Pat was friendly and had a great sense of humor. We will miss Pat greatly.
