“ Beth was the coolest and kindest Mom of any of my friends over my 50 plus years. I knew her best in my early twenties. She gave the best advice and had the best stories. I helped watch the house while she was away with Larry and slept in her bed with Sammy . First dog I met who wanted to sleep under the covers by your feet. We had some of the best parties in her Larry's home, while they were away. Way back then ,labeling her belongings for the kids, to take when you were gone and saying " Shelly , come look around at all these great things the kids dont want, put your name on them. Huge, wrought iron 80's art work on the wall ". Me and Kelly laughing about it later. Beth is someone I will always remember. I hope Beth and Dennis meet up some where and have a blast and laugh down upon us all.
