Beverly Bridge (Chichelli)

Rochester: Thursday, February 26, 2026 at age 81. Predeceased by her husband, Lawrence. Survived by her daughter, Lisa (Steven) Luther; grandchildren, Jessica (Cody Hayes), Jacob and Vanessa Hepner; brothers, Robert (Pina) and Ronald (Sharon) Chichelli; niece and nephew, Kimberly and William Chichelli; and great-niece, Victoria.

Beverly was born and raised in Rochester, New York, alongside her mother, Gladys, and her brothers, Bob and Ron. Throughout her life, she traveled and lived all around the United States, embracing new experiences and creating lasting memories along the way. In the 1980s, Beverly owned and operated a Baskin-Robbins with her husband, Larry- a true testament to her love for ice cream. In the early 1990s, she returned to Rochester, where she remained close to family for the rest of her life.

Beverly had a creative soul. She found joy in arts and crafts, sewing, cross-stitching, crocheting, ceramics, and doll making. Her hands were rarely still, and many of her creations were lovingly shared with family. She also gave generously with her time, volunteering countless hours with the Girl Scouts, the Jewish Home, and the United Church of Christ.

Above all, Beverly was a devoted mother and grandmother to her daughter, Lisa, and triplet grandchildren, Jessica “Mundo”, Jacob “Uncle Mashie” and Vanessa “Lula”. Her grandchildren were the light of her life. Even in the face of dementia, her love for her family remained constant.

Her life was marked by creativity, generosity, resilience, and an unwavering love for those closest to her.

Family and friends are invited to her Graveside Service Tuesday, March 10th at 10am at Grove Place Cemetery, 2775 Chili Ave. Rochester, NY 14624. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Alzheimer's Association.
