“ Brian, my man, my love! I miss you every day. Work just isn't the same without you, I miss talking to you and laughing. I will forever cherish our time together. Thank you for all of the love and fun. You were my easiest resident and my place to hide when I had a bad day. Sitting and talking with you was more than enough to make my day. I'll miss your hugs and smile the most. Until we meet again. ❤️

“ Truly a family man! Fond memories of meeting Brian at our lakeside cottage where he related how great it was to be there and how important it was to have a place for family gatherings. May his soul enjoy eternal rest and gatherings with the faithful. Michael and Jean Augustino
