Carl G. Huebbers III

Chili, NY: Tuesday, December 2, 2025 at age 47. Predeceased by his uncle, Jimmy Fraley. Survived by his daughter, Maddie; parents, Carl Jr. and Elsie; brother, Justin (Nicole); dog, Loki; aunts and uncles, Bradley (Kerry) Huebbers, Christopher Huebbers, Debbie (Paul) Cebula, Cathy Fraley, Cindy (Leon) Tarasiewicz, Jerry Fraley, Bridget (Paul) Ratajczak, Sandy (David) Mellerski and Brian Fraley; and many cousins and dear friends.

Carl Huebbers was a truly one of a kind human being. He was born in Oklahoma, but lived in Colorado for three years, where he obtained his love for the Denver Broncos. After moving to Rochester at 11, he attended St. Pius X. Later, he was a student athlete at Aquinas Institute playing nearly every sport imaginable. He excelled at tennis, baseball, football, and even basketball, which is surprising given his height. After graduating from there, he attended Canisius College, from which he graduated with a degree in Biology. He later attended Bryant and Stratton College, from which he became a physical therapy assistant, a job which he both loved and thrived at. He made an amazing difference in many of his patients lives. He loved to travel anywhere with his family, from Hawaii to Italy, but his favorite places were anywhere warm where he could just lay in the sun. Some of his favorite trips were to different zoos throughout the country with his daughter. He loved any physical activities, and could be called a bit of an adrenaline junkie. He's been swimming with the sharks, zip lining, and has hiked part of Mt. Vesuvius.

While staying athletic, he also was a complete nerd. He loved anything Marvel, DC, and Star Wars. His favorite hobby was playing video games, particularly Final Fantasy. At the end of the day, Carl was an amazing son, an amazing brother, and the most amazing dad. He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

Family and friends may call at the Leo M. Bean and Sons Funeral Home Friday 4-7pm. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Verona Street Animal Shelter, c/o Rochester Animal Services, 184 Verona St. Rochester, NY 14608.

“ Carl was truly one of a kind. He could light up a room, a day, and a heart all the same. Carl was wonderful at connecting with people in a fun and meaningful way - a way that made him unforgettable. He filled the room with a youthful, playful, joyful spirit and balanced that with his professionalism. He was kind, intelligent, caring and so much more. I get all my physical therapy at the gates MVPT which is a totally inconvenient location and quite a distance from my home, especially when there is one right down the road from me. I do this though because I love the atmosphere there & the camaraderie among the team. Carl was a huge part of creating that wonderful environment. His teasing, pranks, jokes, trivia, and mostly his ability to connect with everyone who walked through those doors created something special for all of us. My deepest condolences to his family, his friends, and his colleagues.

“ Words can't even begin to express how hard this news has been. Carl was certainly a special gifted person. He touched so many lives and will continue to bless us. His quick wit, professionalism, and loving soul made everyone feel at ease during treatments. He was open and shared so many wonderful stories about his trips, cruises, love for his wonderful daughter Maddie, parents, brother and Loki. He loved planning Maddie's 21st birthday party, his parents surprise Anniversary party, and his Disney cruise. I looked forward to the updates each week. My thoughts and prayers are with his family, his MVPT family, and friends. You will be missed my friend!

“ I’m so sorry to hear about Carl. While I never met him in person, we played online together for multiple years (Final Fantasy). Together we laughed, cheered, and night after night we all built online friendships that were like a second family. I will always treasure and remember the time we played together and I hope he knew the joy he brought to so many of us. RIP Trast.

“ Carl was my brothers physical therapist for several years. During this time he became more than just his physical therapist but became his friend as friend as well. I met Carl during one of my brothers appts. He was so welcoming and kind with a smile that filled the room and immediatly made you feel at ease. I could instantly tell why my brother was so fond of him as he had spoken of him many times. My heart is deeply saddened to hear of his loss and i cant imagine how difficult this must be for all of his loved ones. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I appreciate Carl for all he has done for my brother and many others. He pushed him to surpass his goals with kindness and compassion. That means the world to me and my family.

“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Carl. My sincere condolences to his whole family. Carl was not only a great guy who was a physical therapist, but an emotional therapist too. His quick wit and great sense of humor lightened up the therapy room on a daily basis. He was the one who named a group of us early birds “The Funky Bunch” and we loved interacting with him with in a fun way while we were there. He made the therapy sessions more interesting with his pranks & humor. Heaven now has a great prankster and a lot more humor. RIP Carl, as you are now pain free. 💔

“ Carl was a wonderful person who brought so much hope and light into our world. He was the physical therapy hero for my significant other, and he looked forward to seeing Carl not just to work on the support Kyle provided, but also to talk about sports and the different teams. We deeply appreciate every bit of light and joy he brought to our family. Despite any challenges he faced, Carl encouraged perseverance and never letting obstacles hold us back. For that, we are truly grateful. Our family is deeply saddened by his passing, and we extend our sincere condolences to his family. Thank you, Carl, for everything you have done for us. You will be greatly missed.

Carl...you had such a special energy that lit up MVPT...I imagine it will be like that in heaven...you will definitely be the life of the party there...I can't even imagine what it will be like going to PT without hearing your laughter, seeing you pull pranks on your coworkers or your kind, gentleness you showed to your clients. I will always remember you playing Happy birthday in all languages from around the world for me. So many beautiful tributes have been commented here and well said. You leave an astonishing legacy behind. The love and energy you gave everyone will be given to you enormously in heaven. God bless you Carl and thank you for being on my path in life. May God bring love and strength to Maddie, your parents, brother, friends and family...and dear Loki.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I knew Carl mostly as Trast Shieldsteel in the game Final Fantasy XIV. We played together for years and had lots of good times and memories in the game. He was part of our core group and just a great all around guy and player. It breaks my heart knowing he's gone, especially for his daughter and the rest of his family.

“ Carl was a great guy. He was my assistant at Walgreens before getting promoted to store manager. He was very knowledgeable and hardworking and always wanting to better himself. He was well liked by his team mates and by his peers also, always willing to help out when called upon. We loved talking about sports whether it be local or the pro's. He loved his family and daughter more than life itself. He was always trying to get to the next level.
I will always remember Carl as a true, honest, and dedicated individual with alot of pride. He was well respected in his field and always a perfect gentleman. Most of all, I will remember Carl as my friend.
Carl, you will be sorely missed but God will have a special place for you and be waiting for you to help in heaven. I love you my friend,

“ I went to high-school with Carl at Aquinas.

We weren't part of the same cliques in high school, but we met on the football field—both the misfit kickers. I was the punter, he was the field goal kicker, and a lot of our time together was spent quietly kicking and punting away from the rest of the team during practice. It was there, in those calm moments off to the side, that a friendship formed.

He was quiet, kind, encouraging, and had a gentle sense of humor. One of my favorite memories of him came during one of our biggest games against McQuaid. My kicking cleat tore, and without hesitation, he handed me his extra right sneaker, telling me it might actually be better because it was “very light.” I don't know if that was true or it was his encouraging words, but I went on to have one of my best games.

I didn't fully realize it back then—maybe because we had different friends and different paths—but looking back now, I see how genuine of a friend he truly was. Two kids finding our way on the practice field. I'm grateful for those moments and for the quiet kindness he showed me that I've never forgotten even 30 years later.

I was so very sad to hear of Carls passing and have been thinking of him in the quiet corners of my day. I would like to send my deepest condolences to his family and lift them up in prayer during this difficult time.

“ Carl was my Physical Therapist for many years when it was GVPT and then at MVPT. He kept me going with his comedic skills, his energy, his empathy and his imagination when it came to exercises that needed adjusting. He made going to physical therapy fun instead of a chore. He truly cared about his patients both therapeutically and emotionally. He was always there with an ear or a shoulder. His enthusiasm was truly inspiring. He became a trusted friend and respected therapist who I am better for knowing. I will miss him and his smile and especially, his jokes.

*I send my heartfelt condolences to his beautiful daughter, Maddie, his parents and brother, and family, friends, and coworkers. May you find a measure e peace knowing how many people he has touched and made a difference. Carl was an exceptional man.

“ As I learned of one of my favorite people left this world, my eternal gratitude to his parents for raising a fine human. He was kind, compassionate, hilarious, a confidant, devious, quick witted, dependable, loyal, full of shenanigans, smart as a whip (sometimes in a nerdy way) and always always made me laugh & smile. He made showing up for the painful times bearable. He became my friend and life without him his unthinkable. Maddie your father was one of the good guys. My heart breaks for you, he was so proud of you.

You are all in my prayers as you navigate this tragedy, my sincere sympathy to your family and all of his MVPT family
