“ Dear Bobby, Tommy, Donna, Timmy, Terry, Sharon, Doug and Denny

I'm sitting here downtrodden, this Saturday morning. How I wish I was in Rochester, together with all of you as you celebrate the life of your lovely mom. There are many memories of sooo many kids playing together, raucous fun at the Nothnagle compound. Aunt Carol and Uncle Bob seemed unflappable as the shenanigans played out.

Visits later in life were family lore, walks down memory lane and updates about all the happenings in your large family. Their love and pride in you, always beautifully evident.

We are never ready to say the final goodbye and the hole is deep. Have the hankies ready to dry the tears earned from a lifetime of being held by a beloved matriarch. Good and cleansing tears. The Carol and Bob story plays on in all of you. Raise a glass from me.

*Love,
Cousin Paula*
