“ Well my dear cousin you won the race, you beat me to the pearly gate where the choir of angels & the Holy Family were surely waiting to welcome you. I know that's true because you were always such a caring person. Your years of service as a volunteer at the hospital & your church certainly speaks volumes about your desire to help people in need.

I'll always remember the good times we had together as toddlers all the way through my first year of high school, for you it was probably 8th grade. Unfortunately our families were separated by three thousand miles for a few years after that, but we remained friends and kept in touch. I'm pleased to say that we continued to stay in touch all these years even though a couple of hundred miles separated us as adults.

My one regret is that I wasn't able to visit with you in person during your final days on this earth. Fortunately I learned of your plight in time to call you, and hear your voice one more time. We chatted for almost an hour so I guess we had a lot of catching up to do. Frankly an hour wasn't nearly enough time so perhaps you could put in a good word for me with the Lord. He'll listen to you. In the meantime I shall miss you.

“ My Aunt Carol was someone very special and we were so blessed to have her in our lives. Nothing will ever be the same, but our love for you will never change! May the angels welcome you home to be with our Lord.

“ Carol was a cousin but it had been many years I hadn't seen her until one day when I went to the hospital. We spoke for a while and it was great to see her. She will be missed by all whom she touched. Frank Colosimo
