“ To me you were like my aunt. I remember sleepovers every weekend & watching fried green tomatoes together, forest gump, and always having an amazing time. I'll never forget those moments, going downstairs to the community rooms of the apartments and hanging out with everyone.. you taught me the definition of “stump” 😭 that was your favorite! You always made me laugh. I'll never forget how good you were to me, you always enjoyed my company & I enjoyed yours. I love you so much, this isn't goodbye forever. 😞💔

“ I started working at the Rochester City School District in 1986 and back then it was mostly Italians ! I felt rite at home as our language were similar I worked with great people and Kathy & Roseann where one of my first and closest friends they were both my attendants for many years ! But Kathy and I became the best of friends I wanted to learn Italian curse words she definitely showed me my upmost best loved word was fungul and every time she saw me she would call me hey fungul we became like mom and son ! I will always keep you close to my heart thank you for the unconditional love you offered and gave me te amo ! FUNGUL!!

I can go on and on lol we used to go to Dunkin Donuts and get coffee and bagels so I'd order lol and she would always tell them HEY I'm a Senior citizen and Him too meaning me ? I was like 30 ??? Then she would have me steal the diabetic sugar in the yellow packets for her !! I had to drink my coffee clean my cup dry it and fill it up with sugar ... I wouldn't change a thing !! Love you always fangulita !! I will always keep your smile in my heart

Cathy was my cousin. She would come to visit with Roseann when we lived on Palmetto Street in Queens New York. We always had a good time. I was always glad when she came because I was allowed to do so much more when she was there. We rode the subway just to ride the subway. We laughed and we sang. I will always think of her when I hear the song Summer in the City by The Lovin' Spoonful 1964. I remember her always saying "Come on Lard Ass". She made us laugh. Cathy rest in peace but don't stop creating a scene in heaven. Love you! Cousin Annie
