“Cherie was one of the first persons that my first wife Betty and I got to know when we came to the Rochester area in 1978, and she showed delight at meeting us and offered generous hospitality and warmth of friendship. Over the following years, Betty enjoyed meeting with Cherie and sharing parenting tips and encouraging each other in spiritual life. I found her a delight to in wisdom, spiritual insight, and down to earth love for all, especially the neglected and discouraged. Since Betty went to be with Jesus 6 years and six days earlier, she and Cherie now have a joyful reunion in God's presence, awaiting the rest of us to join them at our appointed times. Cherie will be missed by many, especially her devoted husband Bob and the family she loved greatly.
