Sunday, October 24, 2021 at age 61. Predeceased by her parents, John & Patricia Simmons; and husband, Thomas. Cheryl had a kind heart and a gracious soul. She loved her children and family and worked hard to show that every day. Her boisterous personality was a favorite with the kids and staff at Jack and Jill daycare where she worked. She could make the saddest kid show a smile and was always ready with a craft or two. To know Cheryl was to know a legacy of love, kindness, empathy and support. Her loss leaves a tremendous hole with all of her loved ones.

“ Heartfelt sympathy to the Simmons and McCarrell families. Cheryl was such a sweet soul and was my children's daycare provider for quite a few years. I knew Cheryl in grammar school (St. James) and then didn't see her for years until I was looking for daycare. So very fortunate to come across her after all that time. Pretty sure Cheryl spent more on her daycare kids than he ever made. Such a caring, giving woman. She will be sorely missed by so many. Rest in God's ever loving arms sweet angel! Fran(Barry) Ryan
