“ I knew Chris many years ago as the grandchild of a neighbor. He was a spirited, wise-cracking kid, and as a teen he enjoyed helping and learning in our sub shop. He used to talk about how excited he was to get his driver’s license and drive our convertible the moment he could. After more than 40 years without contact, he reached out to me as an adult. He was so proud of his beautiful family and the life they had built together. Still a wise-cracker, he came across as a genuine, kind, and true gentleman. I was deeply saddened to hear of his passing

“ Chris (brother)
I can't even believe I'm doing this brother. You left us WAY too early. We were talking about what we were going to do when we both retired at dinner last Saturday night. That will be a memory that will be with me forever!! You were the best friend I could ever ask for. We had some absolutely amazing memories going back to when you, Tim, and I spent our days together.

“ Chris was THE BEST neighbor you could ask for. From the day his family moved in, no one was isolated on our circle. The Holiday BBQ's he hosted were the best parties the neighborhood ever saw! There was nothing the man wouldn't do for us. He was a huge personality and warmth and kindness poured out of his huge heart like a fountain. If there were more people like Chris there sure wouldn't be as much conflict in the world. I will miss you my friend, and there is a huge abyss to fill in your absence.

“ 30 years ago I met the kindest man at an EMT class, little did we know at that first class sitting next to each other we would be lifelong friends. Your generosity, warmth, and kindness towards my family will never be forgotten. I will always think of the years of fun together. Chris you will be so missed. When I see the brightest star in the sky above I know it will be you looking down on all of us with that beautiful smile of yours.
