Cynthia A. Enright-Hitchcock

Gates: Thursday, August 28, 2025. Predeceased by her parents, Clarence and Rose Marie Hagler; and Phillip Enright; Survived by her husband, Dale Hitchcock; children, Chris (Andrea) Enright and Jen (John) Slade; grandchildren, Dakota and Kendall Enright and Chloe and Abbie Slade; siblings, Mike (Sylvia) Hagler and Heidi (Doug) Hull; special friends, Tom and Carol Farrell and Debbie Enright; and many brothers and sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and dear friends.

Everyone who was lucky enough to know Cindy will know her strength, faith, sense of humor, and love and loyalty to her family and friends. She loved her four fur babies over the years, cross-stitching, teddy bears, Ed Sheeran music, candles, crystal, butterflies, puppets, jewelry, turtles, their annual trip to the Poconos, and doing her nails. She loved the crisp Fall and spending time with family, especially at Thanksgiving. She was always at every basketball game and track meet when her kids were younger and she felt especially blessed when she became a Gramma to her four amazing granddaughters.

There will be a big hole in all our hearts that is special just for her.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Melissa and the staff of the UR Medicine Hospice for their compassionate care.

Family and friends may call at the Parish of the Holy Family, 4100 Lyell Rd. Rochester, NY 14606 on Saturday, September 6th from 10-11am. Funeral Mass to immediately follow calling at 11am at the church. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Guiding Eyes for the Blind or to the Gates Chili Fire Department.

“ We met Cindy & Dale at Cove Haven (her favorite place) we all hit it off immediately. Our wedding Anniversary were a day apart. We met up yearly ever since 2013 and she affectionately named our group "The Punks" Poconos and the fall wvre her favorite along with Thanksgiving. She would decorate her suite at Cove Haven in all fall decor. She had a good sense of humor and an amazing heart. She would send us cards for the holidays, birthdays and "just because" that's how amazing she was, that she took the time out to make every single person in her life feel special. She adored and loved Dale, her kiddos, grandbabies so much, and of course God! I will miss our messages and texts and calls. I will miss her so much. I've been blessed to have known her and called her friend. She fought for as long as she could. Greatful for all the memories, our talks and laughter.

“ I have sent a memorial tree in your memory Cindy. You have been in my prayers every day. I will continue to pray for you and your family. Thank you for getting me through some tough times. We started a horrible journey together. I wish your outcome was the same as mine. RIP lovely Cindy. From Angela (Jen’s sister in law)

“ Cindy is my cousin and although I didn’t get to see her as often as I would like, I have the fondest memories of picnics at grandmas and family gatherings. She was always so sweet, thoughtful and caring. She had a big heart and she was a bright light. It’s so hard to believe she’s gone.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Cindy way back from school. She was always the most kind and caring person. She kept touch with our class throughout the preparation for our 50th class reunion which she attended last August. Cindy was a blessing to anyone who knew her. Rest in peace sweet Cindy and may God bless your family.

“ I knew Cindy when I worked at the Wilson center allergy department. Being recently widowed herself, she was a bulwark of support when my husband passed away. I'll always remember her lovely smile, quick wit & her love of a good joke or story. Most of all she was genuine, always reaching out. Cindy, you left our world way too early. I feel blessed that you were a part of my life. Jennifer & family you have my deepest condolences. Linda Decker

“ Dear, dear Cindy--always one of the first Christmas cards we received. So often with a bright smile and easy conversation and an open door. I remember her well from St. Helen's days with wonderful kids, Jen & Chris, always so involved and generous and kind and full of fun and grace. Thank you for sharing her and the Light she shone with us and the world! And God bless you all as you weave her death into Life....
Peace and tender memories...

“ I am totally beyond words. I just text Cindy Wednesday. Jim and I met Cindy a few years back at The Parish of the Holy Family. I fell in love with our friendship with her and Dale. Even went out to dinner with them. Cindy and I texted all the time. She gave me a book, Devotions for Every Day of the Year. Jesus Calling. By Sarah Young. She wrote inside Sept. 2024 To: Jim Melito "I hope you enjoy this book as much as I do. God blessings! Love, Cindy I will cherish this book forever.

I am in tears. RIP. I will miss you forever. Unfair.

“ My earliest memory with Cindy was when our kids went to St Helen School together and we used to go to Discover play place at Greece Ridge Mall and her and I would go on all the fun stuff just as much as the kids did! We were so sad when it closed. I have so many great memories with my dear friend! Especially all our Saturday church and dinners I will cherish! My thoughts prayers to Dale and her whole family. Love and miss you my friend! Your dear friend Carol

I met Cindy when I was working at Highlands Living Center. We clicked immediately and became great friends. She even got us to go camping with her and Dale at the same space as them. She became family real quick. I am sorry I am sorry I was not more involved in her life after I left work. She and family are in our prayers and hearts. I will forever grateful to have had her in my life. She was an amazing woman, a great friend, wife, mother and grandmother. Love you Cindy

*If roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my friend's arms and tell her they're from me.*

*Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.*

*Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day, but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.*

Hallway Hallelujahs

It's been a few days since Cindy passed away, and I'm still processing it. I knew her for 8 years as the chaplain at The Highlands Living Center.

We had these special moments called "Hallway Hallelujahs." Whenever we saw each other in the hallways, it could be a few weeks or even months, but then out of nowhere, we'd share our stories of navigating life's challenges with faith as our guiding light.

"Hallway Hallelujahs" sounds grand, but the hallways aren't the same without her. There's no time left to share all the amazing things God is doing on this side of Heaven because an angel has taken her wings.

She always spoke of "Faith," and with that, she reminded me of the Holy Spirit tattoo on her shoulder. Whenever she touched it and smiled, I knew God was close to her.

And God was and is closer than ever because she's now in His presence, and she's more alive than we are because she's begun her everlasting life in Christ.

This doesn't mean that the grief and pain of missing a friend don't exist. It just helps me manage the pain of missing a genuine woman of faith.

I can't even imagine how her family and husband must be feeling. My prayers and condolences go to them all.

I hope they still feel her love and hear her voice through memories. I hope they can enter into faith and enjoy and appreciate the gift of this wonderful woman of faith whom we know as Cindy.

God bless you all as you grieve.
