“ Dear Caitlin, and Joey (name I remember you by),
I was saddened to read of your mother's passing. I very much appreciated her and all that she did to help with us at Parkminster Preschool. I loved her smile that always shone and I loved her energy that she gave to whatever she did. What I remembered most was how much she loved you, loved being your mom, and was very proud of you. Joey, she told me about how when you grocery shopped with her---when she paid the casier----you would sit over on the bench with an older man (same one each time) and talk to him with his great delight of a "young friend." I was always going to write a children's story about that---even spent time with you to get your reactions----but the story never got written. My heart goes out to the two of you----may God bless you in the days ahead with your families and friends to surround you with comfort.
love and prayers, Mrs. Fuhrman

“ Debbie taught my daughter Michelle at the School of the Holy Childhood. She was so kind and patient with Michelle and helped her to achieve many of her goals.
