Dimitrios Zissis

Chili: With heavy hearts we announce the passing of Dimitrios Zissis, husband and father on Tuesday, December 17, 2024. Predeceased by his parents, Evangelos and Despina Zissis; brothers, Leonidas and Petros; sisters-in-law, Chrysanthe Zissis and Vaso Toros. He is survived by his wife, Eleni; sons, Evangelos and George; brothers, George (Marianthi) and Vasilios (Despina); brothers-in-law, Pantelis (Cleo) Toros, Dimitrios (Violeta), Kostandinos Toros, Petros (Filareti) Toros and Alekos (Elle) Toros; sister-in-law, Vasiliki (Yiannis) Zigomanis; and many nieces, nephews and cousins in the US and Greece. Originally from Greece, he immigrated to the US in search of the American dream. He worked tirelessly for over 40 years at Nick Tahou's to provide for his family. A quiet man, he was happy watching soccer with his brothers and getting visits from his son's dog, Bishop. Dimitrios will be missed terribly, but his family takes comfort in knowing he has been reunited with the loved ones who passed before him.

Family and friends may call on Friday from 10-11am at Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, 962 East Ave. Rochester, NY 14607. Funeral Service to follow calling at 11am at the church. Interment, Westside Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the church.
