Donna Sue Marie Nenni

Chili: Friday, April 18, 2025 at age 72. Predeceased by her parents, Donald and Victoria Paron; loving Shih-Tzu, Mattie; and sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Florence and Robert Simpson. Survived by her husband of 35 years John; daughter, Kimberly Wood; siblings, Candace (Michael) Promowicz, Michael (Patricia) Paron, Vicki Lee (Timothy) Smith and Marc Paron; sisters and brothers-in-law, Joseph (Maxine) Nenni and Eugene (Margaret) Nenni; and many nieces, nephews and dear friends.

Donna was a medical secretary for the Neurosurgery Department for the U of R and in private practice for over 25 years. When she retired at 53, she was pursued by several other doctors offices and departments, due to her top tier organizational skills and work ethic. She turned them all down for the relaxing pace of the retired life.

Donna enjoyed her morning Pepsi, family holidays and jabamba parties, annual trips to Maine, Friday night dinners with friends and appetizer nights with the crazy neighbors. She especially loved Christmas. Decorating for Christmas, watching every new Hallmark Christmas movie and the old classics, and the annual night of viewing Christmas lights in matching pajamas.

Mostly Donna was a homebody who loved decorating her home and taking care of her family. If they expressed any want or need, big or small, she fulfilled it immediately. This was the biggest joy of her life and she was the biggest joy in theirs.

Family and friends are invited to her Funeral Mass Thursday, April 24th at 11am at St. Pius Tenth Church, 3000 Chili Ave. Rochester, NY 14624.

Interment, White Haven Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Open Door Mission.
