“ Loved playing Euchre and tipping a few with Sonny. I was always a decent Euchre player, but I learned the Sonny, “Just like leading Trump” strategy. Always works and I always quote the great one. Well played Sonny, your life was also well played. You will live on in our hearts and funny stories. Love ya! Carol & Walt Vanderpool

“ To Bev. and family. I want to express my condolences to you. I worked with Eddie for many years at Durand Eastman Golf Course. He was always diligent in what he did and he became a true friend. I had not seen Eddie in many years and we were camping at Cedar Point State Park and I heard this familiar voice walking near our camp site. I knew who it was. I was glad to see him and we had a nice visit. May he Rest In Peace.

Tina, both my parents were at Leo Bean's. My Mom and Dad lived right in Chili Center. The Joe Klapp baseball field was named after my Dad. He was also an active member of Chili American Legion Post 1830. I wonder if they knew each other? We will not be available on Saturday, but you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Barb (from Balley's) a long time ago~~~
