“ It is with deep sadness that I learned of Gail's passing. She is a long-time friend, going back to our days in seventh grade through high school. By 1952, we had both met the dear men that would become our husbands, and we would compare notes on how our young love lives were going. Gail was my maid-of-honor at my wedding, bless her heart. She and Bill were present at our 25th anniversary celebration, then Gail was there for our 50th. We kept in touch most years via Christmas cards. Two or three years ago, Gail's daughter informed me that Gail was having some of the issues that seem to plague us old people. But I still have the pleasure of those dear Gail-filled memories of those times long ago. It was a sweet privilege and heaven-sent gift, to have been considered her friend.

With love and sympathy to you all,

Caroline (Sis) Effinger
