“ Mr Daley, a coach, role model, leader and in the end a friend. He influenced so many of us and taught us lessons that made us, his players, who we are today. He may not have known how much he assisted our development. He gave of himself and as a coach was the soul of our teams. More than anything he was a great father. He is missed already.

“ My condolences to the Daley family. I met Jerry roughly 35 years ago when I was just learning the ins and outs of the Transportation world. He was patient and kind with this newbie and helped me get acclimated. Over the years, he helped me through some personal endeavors as well. Just a great man. RIP sir and save a spot for me.

“ Elaine, My sincere condolences to you and your family on the passing of Jerry. I have many fond memories of time spent at the Daley's on Dunbar Street when we were children. Unfortunately I cannot be at the wake or funeral at this time. May Jerry now Rest In Peace.

“ My deepest condolences to the Daley family. I have had the pleasure of working with Jerry for 20 years. Jerry was a mentor to me and many that I have worked with over the years. He will be missed by many. Jerry was tough at times but he was also very supportive. I am truly going to miss all of our conversations.....both good and bad. He was a hard worker and very serious but always had a way of making someone laugh.

There are few people in this world that have the ability to get the most out of someone but I can honestly say that I am a better person because I knew Jerry. Rest in peace. I am going to miss you.

“ I first encountered Jerry when our sons competed on one of the many soccer fields in Chili. I next shared a Cursillo Weekend with Jerry at the Cenacle in Rochester where we became better acquainted through a shared religious experience. Over the years we became friends. To this day I have never met a finer, more Christian Gentleman than Jerry Daley. Rest in peace, old friend. Joe Kane Sr. ps - I am sure my wife, Lena, and sons, Joe Jr., John, and Pat shared this opinion

“ My sincere condolences to all the Daley family. Jerry was a very special fellow, and I liked and respected him so very much. I have truly missed his good-hearted ribbing when I was a younger guy with long hair and an earring. He made me laugh. Rest in eternal peace, cousin.

“ My sincerest condolences. I am away in Charlotte or I would be there to sing at his Mass of Remembrance. Know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless.
Jerry was a good man and special friend to St. Pius X. He will be missed.

“ Jerry was a special person. he was driven, motivated, energetic, and compassionate. He cared for his employees as much as he cared for friends and family. I have worked for C&M Forwarding for about 25 years. Through the years, Jerry was my teacher, mentor , and friend. I am from Long Island and my family was pretty far away, especially when my parents moved to Florida, so Jerry became my "Upstate Dad." It was a running joke that we shared, especially when my own father passed away. Jerry would council me, pray with me, and offer the ever needed hug as I lost my Dad. He has continued in that role for me, as C&M continued to grow and prosper. Always checking in on me to see how I was doing, even as his own health declined. A leader to the end,
Thank you Jerry, for everything.

“ I will never forget our trip to the Bahamas with the Daily's! They had one amazing day fishing and brought the biggest grouper ever! It was so big it could not be weighed on the scale... we have many pics of that trip and we'll never forget our adventure! We love you all and know our hearts are with you at this sad time!

Warmest regards,
Larry and Ann 🐾
