Jacqueline H. Mayne

Rochester, NY: Monday July 22, 2019 at age 84. Predeceased by her husband, John and son, Daniel. Survived by her sons James (Susan) Mayne of Old Lyme, CT, Douglas (Susan) Mayne of Suffield, CT and daughter, Rebecca (Bradley) Flick of Tehachapi, CA.; grandchildren, Alexander & Daniel Mayne, Benjamin & Henry Mayne, and Shelby & Ryan Flick; sister, Barbara Hughey; sister in law, Beverly Rickard, and several nieces & nephews.

Although living most of her life in Rochester, NY, Jackie's roots were firmly set in the South. She grew up in the small town of Baskerville, VA, a place very dear to her heart and a source for some of the more interesting family lore. When she was 14, she moved to Rochester to live with her brother and not long after, met her late husband John, settled down in the town of Chili and raised her family. She was responsible for and directed the creation of a priceless childhood for all of her children and the many fond memories for those who knew her. Years later, as her children began to fan out, Jackie was off to China where she and John lived for several years and had many adventures. She traveled throughout much of the East and a good part of Europe and seemed at times to be a little surprised at how far from Baskerville she had been. In her later years, she continued to travel vicariously through her children and grandchildren, never missing a Facebook post and greeting each day with a picture or posting of her own.

Friends may call at the Leo M. Bean and Sons Funeral Home Saturday 3-5PM. Private interment Grove Place Cemetery. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Wilmot Cancer Center, 601 Elmwood Ave. Rochester, NY 14624.

“ Mom was a Hightower, but was raised by her Grandmother Winn at their farm in Baskerville. The farm is located on Wind road which is a misspelled version of the Winn name. She lived there until 1949 and then moved North to Rochester to live with her brother. I don't recall the family names you mention (others may) but it was and still is a small community down there and would be curious to know if you have heard of the Hightowers or Winns.

“ Sorry for Ms Mayne's passing...I lost my mom almost three years ago...she was 90.

I write to inquire of Ms Mayne's maiden name and was wondering if she had relatives in this area, living or passed. I currently reside just outside of the village of Baskerville, VA where my family has been since the Civil War...i was raised about 15 miles from here just outside of Chase City, VA. However, I spent a week or two several Summers while growing up helping my Simmons grandparents pull tobacco...i was small then so easy for me to do the primings. I currently reside in the old Crutchfield place just outside Baskerville...my paternal grandmother was a Crutchfield before marrying my grandfather Simmons...and they lived across the road. The Crutchfields also had ties to the Reeses as well as the Rolfes.

At any rate, I would appreciate hearing back Ms Mayne's maiden name...if uall are ever in the Baskerville area, it would be nice to meet. Although I'm retired, I am also a higher ed consultant and spent 10 months last year Albany, NY and it looks like I'll be returning there in the near future.

Take care and thanks for the information in advance.
