“ I had the honor to meet Jim at Roberts Wesleyan. We sometimes studied together, and I was even lucky enough to meet Betty and experience her great cooking! Jim was funny and generous and one of the best guys I ever met. I can't imagine your loss. He was truly one of the good ones and though I hadn't seen him recently, I thought of him frequently. I will miss him.

“ I'm so sorry to learn that we've lost Jim. He was a classmate of mine at Roberts Wesleyan. He was a wonderful addition to our class and always made insightful contributions to our projects and discussions. We often compared garden notes, tips and tricks - he was very knowledgeable about his plants, shrubs and trees. My sincerest condolences to his family and his other friends. We will all miss him.

“ Jimmy,
From the time we met in kindergarten and all through your life, you were a kind and good person, usually with that big smile on your face! Although life takes people on their individual journeys, I was very happy to reconnect with you several years ago. Speaking with you as you were navigating your new normal, you still were as genuine and inviting as always. Your passing is so difficult for me to understand, but I know you are at peace now, and reunited with your mom. I hope you know that the impact you had on those of us who were fortunate to know you was immense. You will be missed. Rest easy, my friend.

“ Jimmy was my best friend from the time we were just babes in the woods. We swam in his pool all summer and went sledding behind the apartments down the street. He'd always make us neighborhood kids sing Christmas carols and knock on doors. His mom would be waiting with warm cookies and hot chocolate for us when we returned. He loved his grandfather who walked him to the bus everyday. I don't have a childhood memory without him in it. I loved him and will cherish the memories. Be at peace my dear friend.

“ Jesse and I were shocked and saddened at hearing of Jimmy's passing. He always had such a wonderful attitude and a great sense of humor. We were so happy when he came to our house for dinner with our church friends (The Posse) a few weeks ago! His bright personality, beautiful smile and his great hugs will be missed! As God welcomed him into His loving arms, I am sure his beloved Mom, Betty, was there waiting for him. Rest in eternal Peace, dear friend!
