

Jane Stowe Marks

July 8, 1925 - August 5, 2021

GREECE – Jane Stowe Marks passed away on August 5, 2021 at the age of 96. Jane was born in Churchville to Lester and Aldyth Stowe. Also predeceased by 2 loving husbands William Hartman and Carl Marks; brother Dick Stowe; niece Laurie Stowe.

Survived by daughter Beverly Petrocco; son Bruce Hartman; nephew Richard Stowe; stepdaughters Patti Bookbinder and Jeanie Schmeichel; grandchildren Joelene Nelson, Shannon Fader, Jennifer Hartman, Kimberlee Clarey; 5 great grandchildren.

Jane lived a full life as a wonderful mother, grandmother, teacher and minister's wife. Her deep faith and involvement in the church was at the core of who she was. She played piano, had a beautiful singing voice, loved to travel, knit and crochet, and was a great cook and baker (pies were her specialty). She was a strong woman who was also kind, compassionate and caring – always thinking of others.

Due to the uncertainty of the COVID virus the family has decided to postpone a service until a later time.

Tribute Wall

KG

“ I just signed Carl's guest book again (2023) and saw Jane's obit. She was SUCH a lovely lady and a joy to be around.

Kathy Gretch - November 25, 2023 at 11:09 AM

NH

“ We were privileged to know Jane Marks. An impressive lady who followed in the footsteps of her mother as a teacher. She was very talented and led a life of various ministries as a musician, wife of a clergyman, and a mother. We always enjoyed spending time with Jane at family and church gatherings.

Jerry and Nancy Huffman

Nancy Huffman - August 23, 2021 at 08:44 AM