“ To the Huether family,

I am so sorry to learn of the loss of your mom. She was a such a help to my family when we lost our mom so many years ago. When, as a single mom, my furnace went out on New Year's Eve several years back, Huether's came to my rescue and Jan set me up on a payment plan that even I could afford! She will be missed by all who knew her. May her memory be a blessing to you.

“ To the Huether Family,

Please accept my sincere condolences on your Moms passing. I have many fond memories of Jan and your Dad, (we knew him as "Jack"). Camping with the Gates Chili Fire Department was always so much fun. Especially when it was time to find the famous stew! Jan was incredible lady, always smiling, always friendly. Rest in Peace Jan.

“ I remember going to New York City with Janet to visit Aunt Mary and Uncle Chris during Easter Vacation and going to a Broadway Show. I also remember going up to Snow Road in Canada with Janet and Grandma and Grandpa. We had a lot of good times together. I will miss her cheerful voice on the telephone.

“ I remember, Aunt Jan, was scared of heights. She would not get out of the car, at over looks, to see the beautiful scenery, while traveling to NC. Though distance has separated us, she will be missed. Love you all. You all, are in my prayers.
