“ Jason- you were the first baby among us cousins. I was so excited!~

I actually learned how to crochet just so I could make you a baby blanket! It was all pink and blue and turned out so pretty. I was thrilled to wrap you in it for the first time!

Your life was much to short. You gave so much to your grandparents. They adored you.

No doubt you are up in heaven helping them somehow.

God Bless you cousin.

Jason, friend, Brother And a true stand up guy. I've known you since we were young kids and watched you become a incredible Man. Not seeing you 15 years I still remember you walking to your car when you just ordered wings and driving part we both locked eyes as we both thought, " Wait I know him". Good made are paths cross once again. So many laughs that day about old times.. I'll cherish that photo till I see you again. Thanks for being you, being real, and letting me be your friend. God bless you Brother..

“ Jason was one of the kindest,gentlest people I've ever had the pleasure to know. Always there when you needed someone to talk to and had a calming effect on everybody around him. We used to love to ride our motorcycles together, he was the best riding partner I ever had. whether we were on our way to Letchworth State Park, Sodus Point to captain Jack's for a dinner or just taking the Hills down around Attica. He never stopped smiling when he was riding. Definitely not going to be the same without you my brother, R.I.P. Jason, love you forever.
