“ To Jeffery's Parents & loved ones, As a mother with a son the same age I can not even begin to tell you how brokenhearted I am for the tragic loss of your beautiful son. When I heard the news on the radio I pulled my car over and started to cry. I thought of my son instantly and almost became physically ill. My God in heaven I can not even begin to conceive the shock and pain you all must be living with. I pray that God will help carry and hold you tight as you all go through the days ahead. I will never understand why...why so very tragically. May God bless you all.

“ Son with miss you beyond belief. Watching the hockey game last night just wasn't the same but you must have helped the Penguins, because they won. We will never forget and always keep a place in our hearts for you right next to your loving sisters. We will always have your place at Sunday dinner
