

Jennelle M. DeLucia

September 21, 2022

A beloved daughter, sister, niece, aunt, cousin, fiancé, and friend. Jennelle M DeLucia left this world on September 21, 2022 after years of battling a disease that ended up taking her too soon from all that loved her.

Jennelle was a lover of arts, writing, music, and her passion cosmetology. Anyone that knew Jennelle would say she was the kindest, most compassionate, loyal, grounded, loving, and resilient person they came in contact with. It was hard not love her the moment you met her, she could make a room stand still just by being present with her kindness and loving self.

Jennelle was preceded by her mother, Laurie DeLucia. She is survived by her brother, Anthony DeLucia (Nicole Hughes); fiancé, Michael Bilous; mother-in-law, Marlene Bilous; care giver, Kerrie Baker; her best friend, Amanda Benham; her father, George De Lucia; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

She will be deeply missed by all that knew her and loved her so much.
