John E. "Jack" Baly

Chili - On July 31, 2020, John E. "Jack" Baly passed away at age 79 due to complications from vascular dementia. He was a devoted husband, father of four, and grandfather of three.

Jack worked at Kodak for 30 years and had many interests and hobbies. He was a passionate fisherman and boater from the time he built a boat in his late teens through serving in the Iroquois Power Squadron and competing in many fishing derbies. He had a love for photography, was an avid golfer, and enjoyed weekly poker games. He participated in many clubs and activities, including serving as an active board member of the Western NY Futurist Society and serving as a docent at the Eastman Kodak House.

Friends may call at the Leo M. Bean and Sons Funeral Home from 1:00-3:30 PM on Sunday, September 6, 2020 with a private service to follow. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Rochester Regional Health Foundations, Attn: RRH Foundation Office, 330 Monroe Ave, Suite 400, Rochester, NY 14607 or online at <https://rrhgive.org/giving>, Select "Rochester Regional Health Foundation"

“ Hello Pat & Family, My wife Pat & I met Jack back in 1994. We took the Public Boating Class through Iroquois Power Squadron. Jack was the Chairman of Public Boating back in those days. Ellen Harcourt was Commander when we joined the squadron in 1994. We have known Jack & Patty ever since. May God Bless All of You & Keep You Safe & Well :)
