“ Thank you Uncle John for encouraging my dad to move to America in 1961. You were right, the opportunities for a better life came true. Thank you and Aunt Sonia for being such great friends to my mom and dad, and all those wonderful parties at your house. My parents loved you very much!

“ My brother-in-law John was such a lovely man, generous to a fault and loved by everyone. No obituary can fully pay the tribute he deserves. Will miss you, your wisdom, sense of humour and love of the family. Sleep tight, and as you said last time we were together, see you again in the next world.
