

Joseph Charles DiPasquale

April 10, 2023

Joseph Charles DiPasquale

Passed away Monday, April 10, 2023 at age 92. He was predeceased by wife, Corinne Marie (Bruttomesso). Survived by his only daughter, Corinne (David) Clar; grandchildren Aaron (Therese), Joseph (Jessica) and Allison (Kirk Vance); and 3 great grandchildren, Shane, Murphy and Carter.

Born in Passaic, NJ, Joe loved football all his life and watched professional and college football all day with his close friends. While in the service Joe was a paratrooper with the Army. He was a longtime employee of Rochester Colonial and an active member of many clubs including the Knights of Columbus and the Italian-American Club along with his close companion Eunice McCarthy.

Joe's sense of humor and gift of making friends and having fun will be missed by many.

Private interment at White Haven Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to Monroe Community Hospital and please raise a glass in Joe D's honor and say "Salute".

Cemetery Details

White Haven Memorial Park

210 Marsh Road
Pittsford, NY 14534

Tribute Wall

SF

“ Corie and Family I will always remember Joe for his humor generosity and stories! He really entertained us all at Joey's Graduation party! Even though he had sad times in his life, he pushed through loved you all so much! God Bless him as he starts his new Life! The Fish Family

Susan Fish - April 15, 2023 at 02:27 PM

JC

Who could not love and miss a fellow Joe....rest in peace

Joe Clar - April 17, 2023 at 08:59 PM

ST

Worked with Joe for many years, and he was that guy that always brightened the day with his quick humor. I always looked up to Joe because he had the ability to relate to the younger generation. He was a person that slowly aged. Rest in peace my friend

Stephen Trotta - April 18, 2023 at 08:30 AM