

Lucy Sulkowski

April 20, 2015

Lucy Sulkowski, Brockport, Beloved mother, sister, friend, passed suddenly, April 15, 2015. She was predeceased by her father, Walter Elmer, her brother, Mark Elmer, and her brother-in-law, Michael Smith. Lucy is survived by her sons, Stephen and Andrew, and her daughter, Hannah, her mother, Mary Salvione, her siblings, Jean Smith, Margie, Bill, Cathy Raksha, and Maria Elmer, Dolores (Tony) Gratto, dear friend, Linda Wohlers, nephews, Brian (Sara) Bickersmith and Michael Gratto, nieces, Colleen Smith, Jackie (Victoria) Woodward, and Claire Gratto, her furry children, Ginger, Cheddar, Bandit, and Micki, and extended family and friends.

Lucy was born in Rochester and grew up in the Chili area. She moved to the Brockport/Holley area in the early 1990's. Lucy was active in Boy Scouts of America, Pack/Troop #59 in Clarendon for many years, also a dedicated dance mom with Lisa's Dance Boutique. Lucy's life was her children. They were and are her pride and joy. Together, they attended country music concerts, traveled, went camping, and spent many hours in each other's company. Lucy loved to cook and try new recipes. Her family enjoyed tasting her latest creations. In recent months, she and her kids had a dream of buying a food truck and having Lucy cook and run it.

Calling hours for Lucy will be held on Saturday, April 25, 2015, from 11-2 with memorial to follow. Immediately after everyone is invited to join the family at Jake's Pub and Grill, Towne Plaza, 4390 Buffalo Rd #6, North Chili, NY 14514 from 3-5PM.

Dishes to pass are welcome.
