

Margaret M. Fogg

December 21, 2020

Margaret M. Fogg

N. Chili - Sunday, December 20, 2020 at age 101. Predeceased by her husband, Lynn S. Fogg. Margaret graduated from the U of R in 1940. She worked at the Rundel Memorial Library Building, the central library of the Rochester Public Library. While working there, she met Lynn S. Fogg, whom she married in 1946. They had two daughters, Jane (Roger) Klick and Lynda (Ken) Wildman. Margaret earned a Masters Degree in Library Science at the SUNY Geneseo in 1970 and was a school librarian for 15 years.

Margaret has been a church member since she was 10 years old. She and her husband attended Pearce Memorial Free Methodist Church and Park Ridge Free Methodist Church. She was a Sunday School teacher and in the late 1950's was Children's Work Adviser for the Rochester Presbyterial. During her lifetime, she has attempted to maintain a balance among work, play and helping others.

Private service and interment at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Park Ridge Free Methodist Church or Pearce Memorial Free Methodist Church.

“ Jane and Linda -

I saw the obituary in the D&C and just wanted you to know how much I liked your parents. They were always good friends of my mother and father and I remember them with great fondness. Your mother was always so welcoming and friendly to me when I would visit with Linda. I hope the later years of her life were kind to her. Please accept my sincere condolences.
