“ I will never forget Marjorie’s love of music and how she brightened up when you sang with her. I loved helping her and singing hymns. She would say” das goot” when we finished!

“ Marge played the piano at Grace Covenant Church for any choir music, solos, duets, trios, quartets, instruments and for whomever was leading the worship music on a Sunday morning. She was a gracious and vibrant part of our congregation. After she moved into Cottage Grove, folks from our church still enjoyed visiting her and singing for the other residents while she played the piano.
