“ When I was in college, I often picked Margy up at her parent's house to go out. They were almost always sitting at the table playing their daily Parcheesi game. We'd chat a little before we left and I always thought of Mrs. Mangan as the Silent Laugh. I'd look over and she'd be laughing without making a sound. What a wonderful family. She will be remembered. She will be missed.

*Dear Ken, as years passed after High School graduation our small "clan" became brothers and sisters instead of classmates. It was my honor to meet Mary Kay and find her a sister in Faith. Her quiet smiles spoke loudly. I know she is waiting in Heaven for the rest of us. Bless you Ken, at this time of sorrow, your friendship is important to me. With God's grace, you will endure the quiet days ahead.
Sincere condolences, Nancy L*
