“ My first memory of Matthew was October 4th 1972. I was painting my sister's kitchen with her and my mother and I felt a little flutter. My mother said you're going to have that baby today. I said nah. But she encouraged me to go to the hospital with her and sure enough the doctor agreed. A little while later Matthew was born! Now we had a boy and a girl. What more was there?! One of the happiest days of my life.

“ I worked with Matt at Heany Industries. Matt was always hustling, a very hard worker who was always productive. He was always pleasant and helpful too. He was the kind of person, and worker, who we all wish there were more of. His presence is already missed here. Prayers to all.
