“ I grew up with Mike but lost touch a little after Highschool, I knew he went into the Army and I went into the Navy. He always treated me well and a few years back we reconnected via Facebook, I noticed changes, but he was still the fun guy I remembered even if years had passed. I wasn't able to go to his funeral but will remember him as a friend. I know he has found the peace he was searching for and we will see eachother again in heaven....

“ Many fond memories of Mike, like trying to rescue the Thanksgiving ham from his trunk before a work party. Mike was always thinking of others and would often be the one to suggest fun gatherings. One time out of the blue Mike bought Stromboli for everyone in the laundry! Mike was always willing to share what he had. Mike was also able to make you smile or laugh. I always admired his attitude of not taking himself or life TOO seriously. He always had the best t-shirts too!!! I'll always remember Mike saying “Rrrrrright on” when he was asked to do something. I saw him last on Friday, May 3, and will never forget him. I miss him, and can't wait to see him one day in heaven with Jesus! Please accept my condolences for the pain you are feeling at the loss of such a great guy!!!!!! 🥹
