

Michaelangelo Macon Jr. "Mike"

June 4, 1982 - November 2, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our loved one, Michaelangelo Macon Jr., son to Michaelangelo Sr. and Tammy Macon. Mike was taken from us too soon, on November 2nd, 2024. Words cannot express properly how deep this loss is, how deeply he is loved and how much we all miss him.

Mike loved life so much and lived it to the fullest. He brought immeasurable joy, light and laughter into our lives with his kind heart, radiant smile and wonderful sense of humor. Mike easily lit up any space with his gorgeous smile and incredible personality. He was a dreamer, hard worker, fiercely loyal to all he loved, he loved with all his heart and he was a devoted fan of the 49ers. Mike was proud to serve his country by enlisting in the Navy at an early age and completed 4 years of active service. He is and always will be a beloved husband, father, son, brother, cousin friend and so many much more. Though his time with us was too brief, the depth of love and happiness he shared will forever remain in our hearts.

Mike leaves behind his best friend and wife, Diana Macon. His loving parents, Michaelangelo Sr. and Tammy Macon; amazing children, Jocelyn, Belle, Bella, Anna, Gianna and Daniel; wonderful siblings Monique (Shawn), Marcus (Niki) and Michelle; nieces, JaiOnni, Princess and Angel; nephews Jayden, Prince and Michael; cousins, Rob, Jerry and Delilah, that were more like big brothers and a little sister to him; mother-in-law, Maria Haynes; father-in-law, Donald Haynes; brother-in-law, Donald Haynes Jr. (Jessica); god parents Uncle Steve and Connie; Uncle Moon and longtime family friend Sharon; best friend Dre, who was family to him and a host of cousins, family and friends.

Rest in peace, Mike. We love you and miss you so much. In your honor, we will live life to the fullest! “ I served with Mac in the Navy back in 05 last night 1-07-26 he crossed my mind after 20 years of not talking or seeing him.I called another one of my shipmates up and we laughed at all the great memories we had with him fire a good 20 min. Today I decided to look his name up on FB and seen this sad news. I'm sending condolences to his family wife, and kids. Mac was a good dude and a great person.
