“ So many memories and few words. My heart breaks my friend. I know it is a blessing you are not suffering and I will always have to memories.

You had a rough tough exterior but inside you were kind and gentle.

We had so many good times together. The dinners, the celebrations, cooking clams, drinking under the tree. The cloud watching, snow falling while sitting in our hot tub discussing whatever came to mind.

The football winning and losing. You always picking the Bill's.

Helping me when I needed a hand, supporting me through tough times.

Being the big brother I needed.

I will miss you always in my heart.
