Patricia MacKay

Lockport - On Sunday, February 20, 2022, Patricia MacKay of Lockport, NY passed unexpectedly. To those around her, she was known as Patty. To Patty, others always came first. She will be remembered for her energy, magnetism, and ability to make everyone around her feel beautiful, loved, and so very important. Patty was co-owner of a Merle Norman Cosmetics Studio and worked her lifetime to bring her passion to a vast network of friends and customers. She was predeceased by her mother, Dorothy Stiles. Patty is survived by the love of her life, Larry Brauer of Lockport, and his children and grandchildren who meant very much to her. She is also survived by brother, Fred Stiles (Mariann); sister, Jane Elliott (Mark); niece, Jennifer Elliott and nephew Jason Elliott (Brandi); friend and business partner, Cheryl Valvano (Steve), many family and friends.

Family and friends are invited to call at the Leo M. Bean and Sons Funeral Home Saturday, February 26th from 12-2:00 pm with services to follow at 2pm at the funeral home.

“ I have known Patty for over 30 years through Merle Norman. I am shocked and saddened. I am in Florida for the winter and just found out. She was the sweetest and kindest person I ever met! We always had such fun conversations when I was in the studio. Condolences and prayers to her family. Roseann Laporte

“ I’ve known Patty my whole life. She is very much like extended family. Words don’t express how much she will be truly missed. Her radiant smile, her warm hugs. She was always there to celebrate weddings and babies and the holidays won’t be the same without her. My own children adored ‘Aunt’ Patty - as anyone would. Heaven truly has gained an angel.

I am also a customer and purchased all of my make up from Pat. She was always so upbeat and friendly and gave great make up advice. Pat had to make adjustments to the business over the years, but she always looked on the positive side and loved what she did. She will be greatly missed.
