PATRICIA BRENNAN NAYLON

Webster: Died unexpectedly at 101 years young, on Friday, June 1, 2018. She is survived by her children Michael (Beverly) Naylor, Edward (Giannina) Naylor, Jr., Patrick Naylor (Karla Mettar), and Anne Shanahan (David Grandchildren Colleen Burgos, Michelle Faber, Kellie Scott-Reed, Edward Naylor III, Maureen Shanahan, Aileen Fagan; Patrick Shanahan, Katherine Ogle, and Kara, Molly, and Danielle Naylor; and 13 great grandchildren.

To her last breath, Patricia did not fail to be witty, clear, and charming. She kept a deep faith in God, had a heart for the suffering and a diligent guardian angel she called Richard. Pat would sing "The Old Gray Mare, She Ain't What She Used To Be" while looking at her autographed picture of George Clooney. Gramma Naylor sought updates on all her grandchildren and great grandchildren, St. Augustine parish friends, Bright Oaks Drive and Colgate Street neighbors, and many loving nieces and nephews.

Patricia and her family will be forever grateful to the St. Anne's staff on the Cherry Grove Unit, at the Care Center at Cherry Ridge in Webster, N.Y. for their tender loving care.

Mass of the Resurrection will be held at St. Mary's Church, 15 St. Mary's Place, Rochester, N.Y. at 10 a.m., Wednesday, June 13. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to McQuaid Jesuit High School, Our Lady of Mercy High School, St. John Fisher College, or the Humane Society at Lollypop Farm.
