“ I am so sorry for your loss! I knew Sue from the old days of All Plumbers Supply. And then when she took over for me at Marble by Medusa for a short while. Sue was the sweetest and kindest lady! She never had a bad word to say about ANYONE. Heaven has gained an Angel.

“ I remember it well, we were at the bus stop the first day of 4th grade, September 1963. You were the new kid standing off to the side all alone and looking lost. I introduced myself to you and we were friends forever. If you weren't at my house, I was at yours. Those were the days. I will miss you, Fly High my friend Fly High. Judy McEntee Cobb
