“ So sorry for the loss of Pat. He was too young. Be consoled that he will now be reunited with Pam and his loving mother Beatrice and father Hugh.

“ Chun an domhain lasmuigh d'fhásamar go léir d'aois ach ní le deartháireacha agus le deirfiúracha Tá a fhios againn dá chéile mar a bhí muid i gcónaí Bhí a fhios againn ar a chéile. . . agus beo taobh amuigh den am.

*Caillfidh mé mo dheartháir dheartháir i gcónaí
An chuid eile i síocháin*

“ Dad-

Surprised would be the understatement of a lifetime. Thought for sure you'd outlive me. I'll certainly never forget our talks. Especially the funny moments- most of which you didn't even realize were so funny. I'm forever in your debt for teaching me how to be a man. For teaching us both how to live the right way- and to do what makes you happy. That money isn't truly everything and the best things in life are usually free. You are survived by two strong individuals who carry your name proudly into the rest of this journey. Your wishes will remain respected for the rest of my days on this earth. I am proud to be your son. I am blessed to have you watching over me. I'm truly a greater person for having gained your friendship, and your loyalty. No one will ever forget you. Say hi to Mom and everyone for me in the great beyond. Rest easy now Dad. I love you.
